HEADING

Body copy lorem ipsum this is really just a random paragraph with absolutely no pertinence, jk. When you insert copy remember to keep an eye out for words that are by themselves at the end of a line. Also, don't have too many hypens, it's tacky. Keep things lined up with each other, it creates a grid.

The footer would have tiny links in colums

The Text I used is Gill Sans, but a comparable google font is Lato.

I used different weights to create heirarchy. (Semibold and Light)

Here are the colors if you like them.
